This is what Zanzibar is about!

Zanzibar is a cultural hotspot, famous for its mix of spice plantations, historical Stone Town, diverse culture and beaches. It's roots can be found in the streets, houses with original Zanzibar doors, the markets, the fusion architecture of Arabic, Indian, European and African influences and in its dark history as former territory of the Sultanate of Oman. Besides tourism, Zanzibar's main industries are growing spices as cloves and nutmeg, fishing and farming of algae.
